SUCCESS STORIES

ICOM and RTS – efficient supply chain management.

"We have been one of RTS' s first customers, and we have been cooperating with them for about 20 years.

We have recently upgraded successfully to RTSv8.

This useful software solution enables us to manage the entire order cycle allowing for full control of the overall processes - from planning to production data collection. In this way, Icom is able to supervise each individual activity. The whole production cycle is guaranteed and testable up to the final balance sheet.

In this way we succeed in being efficient and flexible, meeting market requirements and optimizing logistics.

RTS has proven to be a reactive and dynamic structure".

RTS received a special recognition from GIFCO for its 25 years of continuous cooperation and for the precious support provided by the numerous solutions and ideas given to the companies of this field.
